“ I remember making oatmeal for breakfast with Dean and Sue at a church camp retreat. We made way too much and had to dispose of it. Created an oatmeal swamp. A memory of a fun time and a lot of laughs. Dean was a good man.

“ Dad B,
You were a part of my life for over 40 years. You and Sue were the greatest friends to my parents, myself, and my children. When I had trouble with my math homework you were always willing to make time to help me. When I was learning how to drive and was sure I would never get the knack of parallel parking, you patiently guided me through. You were there to answer house project questions, help install a dishwasher, and endless other things. When it came to chicken, yours over a wood fire was the best, nothing else tasted like it. You were a kind, gentle and strong soul.
Love,
Brenda
