“ Our time together with Aunt Agnes and our cousins talking about the early days of the Petersen family were some of the best times! I am thankful we were able to record them..... Today, she joins all her family glorifying our heavenly Father.

At cousin, Shirley's funeral, Aunt Agnes asked me ... why I didn't say something?

I wasn't able too .. and now, I am out of town for her funeral.

Here is what she would want to be to said.

I "felt this" a few hours before she passed, as I watched her breathing peacefully in the the hospis room.

She won't be late for her appointment with Father God.

And we all have an appointment.

What are we reading in the waiting room?

Jesus had His arms outstretched for her and she knew it!

I love You Auntie!
