“ I will be grateful for knowing Al and his family. Without him I would not know backgammon, big Macowitz, cherry wine, spectacle lake, his love of music and his well manicured lawn. I was always awed by his art and I cherish his shaving mirror for ever.

My favorite memories of Al was the annual wine tasting parties where we were able to judge the best wine brewed by the three friendly rivals. Also many Christmas Eves were spent at their house with the folk dancers making the floors vibrate. My daughter a toddler at the time was dancing on the round oak table. Thanks for the memories.
