

Albert "Thomas" Radwill Jr

July 22, 1960 - June 12, 2024

Albert Thomas Radwill Jr.

It has pleased our Lord to draw into His nearer presence Albert Thomas Radwill, Jr. He died trusting in Jesus and surrounded by his loving family at the age of 63.

Tom lived the majority of his life in Racine, Wisconsin, graduating from J.I. Case High School in 1978. He continued his education at Gateway Technical School where he finally earned his Airframe and Powerplant License. He worked his entire adult life in aviation. First as A&P Technician at Tenneco Corporate Aviation and then Rotable Parts Coordinator at Midwest Express Airlines.

His last and proudest accomplishment was his 30-year ownership of Proserv Aviation Inc. which buys and sells corporate jet parts & equipment.

Tom was preceded in death by his father Albert T. Radwill Sr., his mother Joann (nee: Stropes) Radwill, and his former employee and friend Jon Loth. He is survived by his wife Lynn Ramin, her 2 sons Scott & Mathew (Holly & family) and daughter Dena Wozniak, brothers Douglas, Robert, and Stephen, along with numerous nieces & nephews, aunts Bonnie and Pam, uncles Richard and Michael, "special cousin" Tammy, and cousins Kim, Colleen, KC, Jamie, and Sheryl.

Tom was a proud member and trustee of St. John's Lutheran Church in Racine, WI.

Service will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church, 1501 Erie Street Racine,

WI 53402, on Wednesday, June 19, 2024 at 11 a.m. There will be a visitation at the church from 10 a.m. until time of service.

In lieu of flowers, Tom says: "Go to Church!"
