

Alden "Al" Kamakian

May 30, 1952 - February 17, 2013

Alden Kamakian

STURGIS, MICHIGAN-Alden "Al" Kamakian, 60, formerly of Racine late of Sturgis Michigan, passed away on February 17, 2013 after a courageous battle with cancer. Alden was born in Racine on May 30, 1952 the son of the late Benjamin and Mary (nee: Madaghjian) Kamakian. He graduated from Wm. Horlick High School "Class of 1970" and attended University of Wisconsin Parkside. Alden enlisted in the United States Navy in 1973 proudly serving until his honorable discharge as Petty Officer 1st Class in 1996. After his discharge Alden spent many happy years in Kingsville, Texas where he called home. He was an active member and volunteer with The American Legion Post in Kingsville. Alden was an avid reader, found great enjoyment in socializing with friends and maintaining his long term relationships with his Wisconsin and military family and friends.

Alden is survived by his brother, John (Linda) Kamakian of Middlebury, Indiana, sister, Eileen Kamakian of Racine, along with other family members and friends.

In keeping with Alden's wishes private funeral services were held at St. Mesrob's Armenian Apostolic Church with Rev. Yeprem Kelegian officiating. He was laid to rest with full military honors at Graceland Cemetery.

Those wishing to remember Alden in a special way may direct memorials to St. Mesrob's Church, 4605 Erie St. Racine, WI 53402.

The Kamakian family would like to extend a very special thank you to the staff at Thurston Woods Village in Sturgis, Michigan for their genuine and compassionate care given to Alden.

Cemetery Details

Graceland Cemetery

Racine, WI

Tribute Wall

NA

“ Hi Eileen. The write up looks great. I am glad that he had military honors.

Love, Nancy

Nancy - February 23, 2013 at 10:17 AM