

Andrew "Andy" Jennings

August 8, 1950 - November 17, 2017

Andrew 'Andy' Rex Jennings, 67, passed away on November 17, 2017.

He was born to Lucille and Bob Jennings at St. Luke's Hospital in Racine on August 8, 1950. Andy was educated in Racine, attending Mitchell Middle School, and Washington Park High School. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Parkside, where he majored in Geography. Andy also studied at Gateway, earning an Associate's Degree in Library Media. At Park High School, he enjoyed music as a member of the Acappella Choir, concert and marching bands. Andy enjoyed camping, and traveling with his family. As a lover of dogs, the family pets were his special friends and care. Andy liked to read, and enjoyed the Harvard Classics. He was an avid sports fan following hockey and football games.

Andy was employed by Gateway as a Media Specialist, by Racine Industrial in assembly, and by Warren Industries in packaging. He was baptized, confirmed, and a present member of Atonement Lutheran Church. Andy was also a member of The Wustum Museum and The Parkside Alumnae Association.

He is survived by his sister, Mary (Jim) Barcio of West Chester, PA, brother, James (Marcy) Jennings of Baileys Harbor, WI; nieces, Heather Barcio of West Chester, PA, and Amy (Joe) Groller of Shorewood, WI; nephews, Scott Schulz of Portland, Oregon and Robert (Sara) Schulz of Galena, IL; three grandnieces, Sean Parker and Macy Schulz, and Alexandra Barcio. Andy is further survived by five grandnephews, Michael and Jacob Solon, Hayden

Groller, Max and Sam Schulz in addition to cousins and friends.
He was preceded in death by his parents, Lucille and Robert Jennings, two uncles, Wilbur (Ramota) Hartberg and Truman (Irene) Hartberg
In keeping with Andy's wishes, a private funeral service was held at West Lawn Memorial Park Chapel with Rev. Denise Mbise officiating.
In lieu of flowers, memorials to Racine Humane Society or Atonement Lutheran Church have been suggested.

Tribute Wall

TN

“ I have fond memories of Andy from our years at Mitchell School. We would also occasionally cross paths at Parkside and it was always nice to see him. Regrettably I hadn't bumped into him for a long while. My condolences to the family.

Todd Nelson

Todd Nelson - November 19, 2017 at 11:33 AM