May 5, 1920 - March 8, 2014

Ann Marie Brehm

RACINE-Ann Marie (nee: Ferraro) Brehm, 93, passed away peacefully at Ridgewood Care Center on Saturday March 8, 2014. Ann was born in Racine on May 5, 1920 the daughter of the late Sam and Maria (nee: Bruno) Ferraro. She was united in marriage to Walter Brehm on October 21, 1939 in Racine. Ann was employed at MAMCO in the taping coil department retiring in 1983 after 24 years of dedicated service. Upon her retirement, Ann relocated to Mesa, Arizona for 21 years enjoying warm weather, sunshine and palm trees. She found great enjoyment in knitting and crocheting in her leisure time.

Ann is survived by two sons; Ronald Brehm of Gold Canyon, Arizona and Robert (Linda) Brehm of Racine, four grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter. She is further survived by one brother, Matthew (Jean) Ferraro of Racine in addition to nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Ann was preceded in death by her husband, Walter on April 18, 1986, three brothers; Carmen Ferraro, KIA during World War II and Ernest and Tony (Ida) Ferraro and daughter-in-law, Judy Brehm.

Ann's funeral service will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Thursday March 13, 2014 at 11 a.m. She will be laid to rest next to her husband at West Lawn Memorial Park following services. Visitation will be held at the funeral home on Thursday from 9:30 a.m. until service time.

The Brehm family would like to extend a very special thank you to the staff on 2 East at Ridgewood Care Center for their devoted care and compassion given to Ann.
