“ Arnie was a wonderful neighbor for 4 years. When we moved in he gave us all the history of our home and the neighborhood. He had great stories of raising his family here. He was such a sweet man. My children called him Mr. Arnie and they loved waving to him and trying to get his attention even when he couldn't hear or see them. I remember him saying, "I've always been lucky in life." I think he just had a great attitude about life and things worked out for him. Love to his family. He will be missed. The Popplers
