“ Barbara is one of the sweetest ladies I have ever me. One very cold morning(-7 degrees) she told me at church, she couldn't wait to get home and call her Florida friends to tell them they got out and went to church. The Florida friends all thought they would just hibernate like the bears all winter. She was small in stature but huge in personality and empathy.

“ Barb was so generous and loving that even though she had a big family of her own that she loved, she was still able to give love to my family in a motherly and grandmotherly role. Her heart was so kind and open that she didn't have a bad word to say about anyone and accepted everyone. Our condolences to the family. She will be dearly missed by us and by so many.
