Betty Mae Guy

RACINE - Betty Mae (nee: Christopherson) Guy, 99, passed away peacefully on Saturday June 27, 2020. She was born in Indianapolis, IN on November 19, 1920, the daughter of the late Henry and Kathryn (nee: Smartz) Christopherson, Sr.

On November, 1958, Betty was united in marriage to Richard M. Guy. She worked for Wisconsin Bell for over 37 years, starting out as a switch board operator, and retiring from the engineering department. Betty was had a strong Christian faith. She enjoyed crocheting and listening to gospel music. Betty was an avid reader, and loved geography, traveling, and volunteering. Above all of that, she loved her children and babies.

Surviving are her daughters, Joan (Dean) Cepukenas, and Laurie Durksen; grandchildren and step-grandchildren, Betsy (Rick), Rachel, Sarah (Mike), Jackie (Collin), Adam (Claudia), Jessica (Sam), Brian (Kristi), and Patti (Jim), nine great grandchildren, six great great grandchildren, sister, Evelyn Dibble, and her longtime caregiver and friend, Mary Alice Woods. She is further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Richard on June 24, 1995, son-in-law, Bryan Durksen; and her brothers, Robert, MacArthur, Henry Jr., and John.

A graveside service will be held at Graceland cemetery in Racine, WI on Tuesday July 21, 2020 at 10 a.m. She will be laid to rest next to her husband Richard. In lieu of flowers, a donation to a charity of one's choice would be appreciated.

Betty's family would like to thank Mary Alice Woods , Hospice Alliance, and The Woods of Caledonia for their wonderful and loving care of Betty.

“ Betty helped in my classroom from 1990-92 as a volunteer tutor. I had some really difficult students with really low skills those years and she took them individually or in twos and worked with them while I taught the rest of the class. Her gentle manner and kindness worked miracles and I was forever grateful.
