“ There are not enough words or hours to describe what I feel when I think about you. My heart still aches. I find myself crying a lot because I need you and your not here. Life is weird and doesn't make sense without you. I find it hard to do the things that you and I used to love. Sometimes it feels like its a bad dream and I just want to wake up and make it all be over. I know that this is life and the world will keep turning regardless of my aching heart but I still cant help but to look for you and want to speak with you even just here okay baby come from your lips. I know you are in a better place and that we will be together someday again. So until that day I will keep looking for you and missing you. I love you.

“ Mom, I wish we had more time to get to know each other. Thank you for being the best Mother In Law a girl could have. You helped me feel like part of the family before I really was !!! I love you and your smile is the memory I treasure.
