“ Was Brian's childhood friend. We used to listen to Metallica all the time and drinker a lot. A lot has changed when his brother was murdered. I think that changed everyone's life that day. I will never forget my friend an never will. I talk about almost everyday from what we used to do. We had a lot of fun together. I will never forget you my friend. We did some crazy stuff together. I will never the good the times we had. You might have passed away bur you will never be forgotten. I talk about you a lot. You are missed and that is the truth.

“ "Free Fallin" A motto we used to live by, as he and I walked through the streets of Georgetown with our brother Jay Bassinger, singing our anthem by Tom Petty at the top of our lungs. Some of the best memories of my life! Now I suppose it's time to pick myself up from that free fall feeling and try to move on but I will always have memories of Jay and now Brian to help me up after a fall.
