“ Dear Janyce.

We share your loss but treasure everlasting memories of Carl. From the first time he welcomed us to his circle of friends at a trade show in Chicago some twenty years ago, we have shared his boundless hospitality and endless smile. Thank you for lending him to us too.

His open enthusiasm for life was shared with us from the top of the Sydney Harbor Bridge to airshows in Oshkosh Wisconsin and trade shows across Europe and the USA.

He lived his Christianity without compromise.

Lots of love and sympathy from,

John and Lyn, David and Susan, Zachary and Grayson Gerber of Sydney, Australia.

“ Carl Granetzke was one of a kind! His smile could light up a room the moment he entered. We've been good friends for countless years and met through running. He had a zest for life, like no other and loved everyone he met. Although Carl has left us, his enthusiasm and kindness will live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

“ No simple words can describe Big G. His heart was bigger than life itself. He loved fiercely his family and friends, carried God in his heart, and lived life with passion, joy and great positive energy. He kept running until the very end (literally) and inspired the rest of us.

I was blessed and privileged to be accepted as part of the family. He and Jan answered an ad they saw in their church hallway 30 years ago to host an international college student. They greeted me with open arms, a beautiful room for me to stay, and a warm bowl of chili. Not only that, they welcomed me into their family life as a daughter. They celebrated my wins, worried about my challenges, and supported me to find God and build my faith. They showed me what makes this amazing country great and the kind of person and parent I want to be.

Big G has left his mark on my heart and life with his boundless, selfless love, warm smile, and passion to stay active, strong, and enjoy every moment of life, with all its ups, downs, and turns.

“ Janyce, I was saddened to learn that Carl had passed. Over the many years of contact I had with him in my office it was always a joy to have conversation. He had a unique personality which was always pleasant and direct. The word dedication comes to mind as an appropriate foundation of the values he championed. Recognizing his strong faith will be a gift of peace and comfort as you journey through a reservoir of stored memories. Sincere condolences, Ken Rubin
