“ I have so many precious memories of Carol the past 24-plus years I've known her and she has been part of my family through marriage. So often I stayed at her place when I was in town from Texas and would call out when I arrived "Your second daughter's home!" We traveled to Hawaii for Rod's wedding, visited Pearl and Leo in California, got to Missouri for Brian and Cindy's wedding, spent New Year's in Florida, visited the Groth mobile home several times up North, and got to Jackson for various events.

It was special spending some Christmas Eves with Carol and Bayard and the clan. All the gifts under the tree, the oyster stew, sandwiches, and cookies, and the laughter. Carol and I would go on walks when I was around. She attempted to help correct my golf swing, and we would just shoot the breeze. She shared a lot about the Boultinghouse, Tweedt, and Drasen family history and stories.

Of course my funniest recollection is the one I shared at the funeral. When Bob, Peg, the boys, Carol and I were driving back to Racine from Wautoma, when we passed a store with a big sign that said ADULT TOYS, 9-year old Josh asked. "What are adult toys?" While his folks grappled with the question, Carol immediately piped up, "Oh, you know, snowmobiles, boats, cars!"

Thanks for the memories, Carol. You're in a much better place reunited with Bayard and your loved ones who have gone on before you. What awesome sights you are seeing right now, plus being in the presence of Jesus your Savior. I love and miss you.

Aloha, Linda Groth
