“ We were all in a meeting at Janes School on Friday when Rosa R. came in to tell us the sad news of Carrie's passing. The room went quiet as we sat in stunned silence remembering our dear friend and colleague.

I had the pleasure and privilege of working with Carrie at Janes for many years. She was always one of the first people to offer her assistance with my music programs. Whether making decorations, supervising students, or lending a listening ear, Carrie was there for me. Her dedication went far beyond her job description.

Carrie was a social person who truly enjoyed helping other people. Along with RaeAnn Eeg, Carrie and I had many, many in depth conversations around the coffee pot located in her work room at Janes.

I will carry my fond memories of Carrie with me always. She left this earth far too soon. I know she is now free from pain and at peace. She will be missed by many.

My heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to Carrie's family; Husband Dennis, daughters Denise and Misty, and her grandsons (my former students) Cody and Dallas.

Sincerely,
CarolAnne Frank

“ God where do I begin. Carrie has been a extended part of my family for many many years. She was my adopted sister as she loved my mom so much my mom adopted her in spirit. Her and Dennis have been around forever and we love them! Always there to lend a hand, or just to talk and give support. Dennis would go play poker with the guys and Carrie would stay at our house and visit my mom. When Carrie and Dennis first had Misty I was the first person entrusted to babysit for them. How special I felt. But it probably helped that they lived across the street from us and felt my mom was near if I needed a helping hand. After my mom passed away we did not see each other like in the past but I always sent Christmas cards or ran into them at stores or doctors offices. I was shocked and saddened to hear of Carrie's passing. I told Dennis today that I am a bit jealous because she gets to be with my mom again before me, even though I know her family would rather she was here just like I wish for my mom. But at least she is in loving company! I wish you a peaceful eternal rest with no more sorrow or discomfort. Someday will we all be together again. Love you guys!

“ She was everyone's favorite Aunt. We all went to her for advice, or to help us get on the right path, help us get on our feet. everyone was always welcome at her house. All about family values, I learned a lot from her. She was my brother's god mom. She was the glue that kept our family together. Rest in peace Aunt Carrie. I love you!!!##
