

Charlotte Kay Burnette

January 25, 1955 - March 25, 2025

Charlotte Kay Burnette, 70, passed away on Tuesday, March 25, 2025.

Char was born on January 25, 1955 in Princeton, West Virginia to Raymond and Eunice (nee: McKinney) Burnette. She was united in marriage to Richard J. Drechney in 1972. Char worked at The Lighthouse for the Blind, and the Zion Nuclear Power Station in the fire brigade department.

In her free time, Char enjoyed reading, sewing, and crocheting, and above all, she enjoyed playing Scrabble; Char was known as the reigning champ, and her skill created some friendly feuds amongst family and friends. Char was very proud to have held her motorcycle license, graduating from the same driving school with her son. She loved music, especially if her family performed. Char also had an affinity for flamingos.

She will be deeply missed by her children, Cory (Jan) Drechney of Hammond, IN, Erick (Sarah) Drechney of Caledonia, WI, Ronnie (Cherie) Kaczmarek of Chicago, IL, Danielle Drechney of Kenosha, WI, and Adam Drechney of Huntington, WV; former daughter-in-law, Melissa Horner of Princeton, WV; grandchildren, Caitlin and Haley Kaczmarek, Taylor, Zoe, and Nathaniel Drechney, Delaney, Devon, Riley, Addison, and Avery Drechney, Ashley (Michael) Pendry, Jordan, and Cayden Drechney, Shawn (Dakota) Klein, Edward (Kassie) Sandford, and Charles Sandford; great-grandchildren, Otto, Henry, Abraham, Todd, Madi, Eli, Luca E., and Luca P.; and many other family members and friends.

Char is preceded in death by her husband, Richard Drechney; mother and father, Raymond and Eunice Burnette; and brothers, Marshall and Wayne Burnette.

In keeping with Char's wishes, a celebration of life will be held at a later date.
