“ My condolences to all Clyde's family for his loss. I am thankful to have many memories of visiting when we were younger, especially the summer that my brother and I spent staying with Aunt Gail, Uncle Hank, Clyde and Larry. Our many trips to Wisconsin, our memories have enriched my life. May the comfort of family and friends be with you, May God be close to you now, for strength and comfort - and may His peace overflow in the days to come. Bye for now. Your cousin, Marilyn J Mix
