“ I am sorry for your loss. I did not know him well, but he was a brother in arms. I remember the first time contacting him because his unit made an error sending me his leave paperwork. I met him on his return back from leave. It was a surprise to see someone with my same name, in the same country, and profession. You have my condolences.

“Karl and Pam, the prayers and thoughts of comfort heading your way are countless. Words are hard to find but happy memories are bountiful. I remember Danny briefly as a little guy hanging on Karl's leg at a reunion.....several years ago. My thought for you is how incredible the reunion with Aunt Marge and my Dad (Uncle Delbert) in heaven. If there was a noise level in heaven, I'm sure it would be certainly exceeded by now. Peace belongs to Danny, in our Father's arms.
