“ My heart broke when I heard the news. We have truly lost one of God's angels here on earth. Darlene always had a special place in my heart since we met. John got to know her as the love of his life. I got to know her as the sweetest, most precious, most tender, most compassionate, most loving, most giving, most gentle, gift from God. She was a true reflection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. From a young age, she walked the walk and talked the talk of what being a Christian should be. She was the best friend that anyone could have had on earth. She will be deeply missed, not just by me, not just by John, not just by her family, not just by her close friends, but by all those she touched during her years on earth. All of the rewards that are waiting for her in Heaven are well deserved.

John, Betsy, Eric Trudy, Katy, and anyone I may have missed, I am sorry I couldn't be there, but I want to send my deepest sympathy and I will continue to pray that the pain that is now in your hearts, will be replaced with God's peace and rest and that the joy of the Lord will overtake the pain and you will know she is with him and not suffering.
