I can still picture David as a little boy, then a teen-ager, and then in the Army in Germany. In later years, I had the opportunity to visit with him only a few times, but he (in my mind) is still the little boy who lived next door, who was trying to build some new kitchen cabinets for his mother. What nice memories I have of him, his siblings, and his parents. We were "family." And this included Gretchen, the German Shepherd. For many years we visited over the fence, had impromptu picnic dinners together in the back yard, and were so pleased to take part in each other's lives. My heart goes out to his family and friends, with prayers for David's eternal peace. With love--
