

David T. Woolrage

November 3, 1937 - October 27, 2025

David Taylor Woolrage, 87, of Racine, formerly of Indio, CA, passed away on Monday, October 27, 2025. He was born November 3, 1937 in Racine, WI to the late James and Elaine (Ledwell) Woolrage. He was a graduate of Park High School and also served in the United States Navy 1957-1962. He was a sales manager in precision machine tool sales and traveled the world for work and pleasure. He could fix anything and was called, "Mr. Fix It." David met his wife Lynn at a singles sailing club. They were united in marriage on December 29, 1991 in San Pedro, CA. They joined the Seal Beach Yacht Club shortly thereafter. Lynn helped with events and David was Rear Commodore in 1995 and Commodore in 1997. They both loved sailing and did so often. Catalina Island was one of their favorite places to visit. Lynn preceded him in death on June 28, 2025. He was also preceded in death by his first wife Shirley (Harris) Woolrage, his parents James and Elaine (Ledwell) Woolrage, sisters Joan (Marv) Bosteder, Dorothy (Rudy) Primuth, Sara (Dennis) Hudec, and brother James Woolrage. David is survived by his daughters, Tammy (Mike) Easton and Terrell (Mark) Beach; granddaughter Allegra (Jason Pickering) Easton; and sister-in-law, Joan Woolrage. David has been laid to rest at Southern Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery.
