“ Thank you, Debbie, for raising such a kind, loving son. He is trying to care for Clark, Sr as he knows you would want him to do.

You would be so proud of how your entire family is working together since this unexpected tragedy happened. We all miss you so very much, but are trying to celebrate the wonderful memories we had with you...and each other. I know you are reunited with your mom, dad & sister just watching over us smiling...and that keeps us going every day. I love you, Debbie, and miss you dearly.

My heart is broken and I miss you so much Mom...why did you have to leave me so soon? I promise to look after Dad as you did and I thank you for raising me and I hope I made you proud.

To all my friends...never think you can tell someone you love them too many times and treat every moment together as the last, because you never know when it really will be the last time you can say, "I love you."

I love you Mom!
