Delores Hubmann

Delores Clara Prochnow passed away on November 27, 2024. She was born on September 9, 1934 to Clara (Sizer) and Adolph Prochnow in LaCrosse, Wisconsin. She grew up on the Hillside Farm in Oakdale Wisconsin with her four sisters. She graduated from Tomah High School class of 52.

She continued her education in Racine, WI receiving her LPN license. She worked in both Kenosha and Racine. On a blind date February 14, 1958 she met her future husband George J. Hubmann. They married on June 14, 1958 in Atonement Lutheran Church with a reception at the German Club. Together they built their first home and lived and raised their family for 60 years in Racine.

Delores was an avid sewer, crocheter, knitter and home DIYer. While raising her children, she was active in the St. Luke's Women's Auxillary, Meals on Wheels, Washington Women's Golf League and Atonement's YoMarCo. She helped sew hundreds of quilts for Lutheran World Relief. She knitted hundreds of newborn caps for the hospital and created 100s of colorful slippers, that she loved to give as gifts. She was reunited with her best friend from nursing school, Barb Heinicka, for three years at St. Monica's. She quietly lived her final days at St. Monica's Senior Living where she was always walking the halls & knitting prayer squares for Sister Jana.

Surviving are her two children and their families, Curtis & Barbara Hubmann and Peggy & Jeff Robinson, grandchildren Martin, Julia, Kyle and Holly.

Sisters Ruth and Carol and many nieces and nephews. Proceeding her in death were her parents Clara & Adolph Prochnow, sisters Jean, Alice and Betty and her beloved husband of 58 years George J. Hubmann. A celebration of life with her family will be held at a later date.
