Doris Gail Klemencic

RACINE-Doris Gail (nee: Burley) Klemencic, 74, passed away on April 4, 2012, peacefully with her family by her side at Wheaton Franciscan Health Care-All Saints. She was born in Virginia, Minnesota on November 15, 1937 the daughter of the late Marvin Wesby and Doris Abigail (nee: Johnson) Burley. Doris was united in marriage to Ronald Klemencic in Kenosha on December 30, 1961. She earned her Bachelor's Degree at the University of Tennessee and furthered her education with a Master's Degree at the University of Wisconsin Parkside. Doris was a member of Christ Church United Methodist, Adventures in Lifelong Learning, National Education Association and Wisconsin Education Association Counsel. She was a teacher of ESL at Gateway retiring with 27 years of service. Doris found great enjoyment in playing Bridge, was an avid reader, enjoyed going for walks, gardening and was especially proud of her rose bushes.

Doris is survived by her husband of 50 years, Ron, her children, Ron (Gail) Klemencic Jr. of Seattle, Washington, Kim Klemencic of Maryland, grandchildren, Lauren, Annie, Joe, Jake and Ben. She is further survived by her sister, Peggy Rice of North Carolina, and one brother, Richard (Dale) Burley of Atlanta, Georgia.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents and step-mother, Margaret Burley.

In keeping with Doris's wishes, a private service will be held for family members. In lieu of flowers, the family requests those wishing to remember Doris in a special way may direct memorials to a charity of their choice.

“I got to know Doris through Adventures in Lifelong Learning and so enjoyed her enthusiasm in the various classes and focus groups that we participated in together. Her upbeat outlook and obvious joy in life made being around her great fun. She will be missed! Please accept my sincere condolences and sympathy in your loss. Jude Treleven
