

Duane Allan Rosier

September 18, 1938 - July 25, 2010

CALEDONIA - Duane Allan Rosier, 71, was at last embraced by his Lord and Savior on Sunday, July 25, 2010 at Aurora St. Lukes Hospital in Milwaukee. He was born in LaCrosse, Wisconsin on September 18, 1938, the son of Leonard and Elsie (nee: Rassmussen) Rosier. He attended Mauston High School. On October 22, 1966 Duane was united in marriage to Barbara Beeman at Union Grove Baptist Church. He was currently attending Racine Bible Church. After a lengthy and hardworking career in machine repair and troubleshooting, Duane retired from Internet in 2004. He loved the outdoors and hunting and was an avid fisherman until the end. He also enjoyed anything to do with classic cars.

Duane is survived by his beloved wife, Barbara; loving and patient father to Tom (Lisa) Rosier of Fox Point and Shelby (Richard) Salvhus of Caledonia; doting grandfather to Paige, Peyton and Tom Jr.; Father-in-law and mother-in-law, Gary and Evelyn Curtis of Burlington; sister-in-law, Marion Rosier of Camp Douglas. He is further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Robert Rosier.

Funeral services will be held at Racine Bible Church, 12505 Spring St. on Thursday, July 29, 2010 at 11:30 a.m. with Rev. John Miesel officiating. There will be a visitation at church on Thursday, before the service from 10 a.m. until time of service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to Racine Bible Church have been suggested.

A special thank you to the nursing staff in the CV-ICU for the compassionate care given to Duane.
