

E. Marie Hoeffert

December 23, 1930 - February 15, 2012

E. Marie Hoeffert

RACINE - E. Marie "Bunny" (nee: Sharer). Hoeffert, 81, passed away at Lincoln Village Convalescent Center on Wednesday, February 15, 2012 with her family by her side. Marie was born in Warren County, Illinois on December 23, 1930, the daughter of the late Linus and Vera Sharer.

She was united in marriage to Raymond Hoeffert on November 22, 1956 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Racine. Marie enjoyed being employed as a food demonstrator at Randall's County Market and various other stores. Most of all her greatest enjoyment was being a wife, mother and grandmother and a friend to many. She was a longtime member of Trinity Lutheran Church, which she attended regularly until health prevented her from attending. Marie is survived by her husband of 55 years, Raymond, children, David (Laurie) Hoeffert of Racine, five grandchildren, Andrea Hoeffert, Melissa Fairbanks, Shanna Fredericks, Taylor Hoeffert and Paige Hoeffert. She is further survived by seven great grandchildren, Tommy, Deanna, Freddy, Jackson, Ethan, Evelyn, and Matthew. She is also survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and many dear friends.

Marie was preceded in death by one brother Linus "Cappy" Sharer.

Funeral Services will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Sunday, February 19, 2012 at 6 p.m. with Rev. Stephen Jennings officiating. She will be laid to rest in a private ceremony at West Lawn Memorial Park. Visitation will be held at the funeral home on Sunday from 4 p.m. until service time at 6 p.m. Those wishing to remember Marie in a special way may direct memorials to Trinity Lutheran Church, 2065 Geneva St. Racine, WI 53402 or to Hospice Alliance Inc., 10220 Prairie Ridge Blvd. Pleasant Prairie, WI 53158. Marie's family would like to extend a very special thank you to Lincoln Village Convalescent Center for their fine care and Ethel for her sincere and devoted friendship.
