

Edward Allen Hagger

May 10, 1956 - February 25, 2016

Edward A. Hagger

RACINE-Edward Allen Hagger, 59, passed away peacefully at WFHC-All Saints on February 25, 2016. Edward was born in Douglas, Michigan on May 10, 1956 the son of Donald and Beverly Hagger. He graduated in 1974 from Fennville, Michigan High School.

Edward was a longtime and faithful member of St. Edward's Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus, receiving the honors of the Forth Degree. He was employed with AT&T as an operations manager retiring after more than 30 years of service.

Edward found great enjoyment in golf, fishing, vacationing to the Florida Keys as well as around the world and had great pride in caring for his garden. Not only was he known for his humor, extreme generosity to many friends, family and strangers; he found his greatest enjoyment with the time he spent with his family and loved ones.

He is further survived by very dear friends, Elizabeth (Dennis) Homolka, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, other relatives and many dear friends in Racine and Michigan. Edward was preceded in death by his father Donald and uncle, Donald Burke.

Edward's memorial service will be held this spring in his home state of Michigan with his family, friends and loved ones.

“ I was blessed to know Ed as a fellow parishioner at St. Edward Church. His kindness, generosity and commitment to others was contagious. I looked up to him as someone I endeavored to be like. He was always positive, and he showed courage and strength that could only have been rooted in his faith. He was a great role model, and it was an honor to have known him. He will be deeply missed.
