Elizabeth Jane Christiansen

RACINE – Elizabeth ‘Betty’ Jane Christiansen, 103, passed away peacefully on Thursday, November 13, 2014 at Lincoln Village Convalescent Center. She was born in Rosefarm, OH on September 27, 1911, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Kessler. Betty was united in marriage to Robert S. Christiansen on February 4, 1939. She was employed by Johnson Wax and worked as a clerk at J. C. Penney. Betty enjoyed gardening, reading, working word puzzles and playing cards. She also loved traveling in Wisconsin. She had a special place in her heart for animals, especially her pets and her family’s pets.

Surviving are her two sons and daughter-in-law, Theodore ‘Ted’ Christiansen of Mt. Pleasant and Robert ‘Bob’ (Judy) Christiansen of Caledonia, granddaughter, Danielle (Brian) Strom and great grandson, Mitchell Strom all of Delavan.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Bob on November 1, 1978, parents, brothers and sisters.

In keeping with Betty’s wishes, private services are being held with interment at Graceland Cemetery.

A special thank you to the staff at Lincoln Village Convalescent Center for the loving care provided over the past year and half.
