“ I first met Ella at Jean Mano's, her dearest friend. I continued seeing her at Jean's and also at Joe Kneiszel's. It was at those gatherings that I enjoyed her friendliness, sweetness, and specially her independence, which I admired. She was "amazing."
She will be missed.

“ Sweet Ella, so dedicated to all those language students at Gilmore. She made students shine with exuberance and excitement. Ella broadened their horizons And thank you to Jean who stood by her side year after year, in truest friendship. What a partnership!

“ I am sending my heartfelt condolences to all of Ella’s family. I came to know Ella as a fellow teacher, and I could have not asked for a more professional and helpful colleague. I came to regard Ella as a friend, one who shared my interests and was fun to be with, but more than anything: she was loyal and trustworthy.

Ella had a positive impact on many people during her long and productive life, and I was not surprised to see, that rather than attracting attention to her herself, she chose to be remembered by kindness to your family. She was all about family, Friends and kindness to others.

I will tell my grandkids about my Italian/American friend, who was open to all cultures and spoke several languages. I am happy to have had her in my life.

“ La Prefessora shared her knowledge and passion for language with me for two years at Gilmore. I am glad to know she shared her passion and friendship with the Manos and had many good times at Roma fish fry! Thanks for sharing those updates Mark Mano on Facebook.

Miss Gardina will be missed greatly and I gave fond memories of Spanish class and finding reasons to have a party!!
