Elvina L. Schmidt

RACINE – Elvina L. (nee: Goetz) Schmidt, 70, passed away at her residence on Saturday, February 13, 2016 after a second battle with breast cancer.

Elvina was born in Milwaukee on November 17, 1945, daughter of the late Ellsworth W. and Vivienne E. (Hougland) Goetz.

Elvina grew up in Brookfield and attended Brookfield High School. She later attended Gateway, Parkside and Carthage College. Elvina was employed by Racine County at Ridgewood Care Center for 26 years, retiring in 2007. She enjoyed her job very much and the wonderful people she worked with.

She was united in marriage to Timothy B. Schmidt in 1991. Timothy preceded her in death on February 2, 2011. Besides her parents, also preceding her in death was her brother, Ellsworth 'Butch' Goetz from North Prairie. Throughout her life Elvina enjoyed the outdoors, including going to Little Green Lake, going to Wisconsin Dells, gardening, weekends in Chicago, aquacize, and traveling to visit friends and relatives.

Surviving Elvina is her son, Benjamin T. (Mary) Lake III, grandchildren, Mara and Spencer Lake, special friends; Fran, Barb, Brenda, Kathy, Doris and Sally.

A special thank you to Hospice Alliance, Brookside Care Center and Dr. Mullane and the staff at Aurora Cancer Center for their kindness and care.

A celebration of Elvina's Life will be held at Infusino's Banquet Hall on Sunday, February 28, 2016 from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m.

“ Elvina became my friend at Brookfield Central. My sister Sue, Elvina and I shared so many laughs outside of school as well. At one time we all liked a winter jacket that we each bought one! I am so glad I knew her. Please accept my sympathy. Sally (Moberg) Blank
