

Eugene C. Trimble

May 19, 1933 - October 17, 2021

RACINE- Eugene Carl Trimble, 88, passed away on Sunday, October 17, 2021, at Clement J Zablocki Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Milwaukee, WI.

He was born in Milwaukee on May 19, 1933, to Lucille V. Plante. Gene was united in marriage to Virginia Marheine on August 16, 1979, in Manistique, MI. He proudly served in the United States Army from February 1951 to January 1953, serving in the Korean War, receiving the Korean Service Medal with two bronze stars, a United Nations Service Medal and two Overseas Bars.

Gene spent his life seeking new opportunities and was always eager for new challenges. He had a unique perspective and often saw value and possibility in things overlooked by others. He was an independent man who was determined to live life on his own terms, but valued family above all else. He enjoyed watching old western movies, but his greatest joy was his grandchildren.

He will be missed by his wife, Virginia; daughter, Laura Trimble; son, Bradley (Jean) Trimble; daughter, Michelle Harvey; son, Terry (Gretchen Peterson) Trimble; son, Jason (Erica) Trimble; daughter, Mary (Derek) Andrews; daughter, Ashley (Zach Johnson) Trimble; grandchildren, Bradley Jr, Bridget, Clint, Kiry, Elizabeth, Lana, Johnny, Laci, Landen, Dean, David, and Lucy; great grandson, Kaiden.

Gene was preceded in death by his mother, Lucille, and many beloved aunts and uncles.

Private services with full military honors have been held. Gene was laid to rest at Southern Wisconsin Veteran's Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials in Gene's name to Clement J Zablocki Veteran's Affairs Medical Center have been suggested. The family wishes to extend a special thank you Clement J Zablocki Palliative Care Team for all their compassion and care.
