“ Our family first met Bob and Carol at the fifth Street yacht club when I was a young child. Much later we moved in next-door and became neighbors and friends. Bob and Carol were so sweet to us, and took great pride in their home and yard. They were so sweet to plant a lilac bush between our houses because Bob knew that I liked the fragrance, and would always display a beautiful red glass yard ornament there as well. Again because he knew we liked it. We would sit on the patio together and talk many many nights. And after Carol passed, we checked in on Bob as often as we could. He always stayed hopeful happy and sweet. He will be dearly missed, by all the neighborhood.

“ I will miss Bob coming into Piggly Wiggly and talking with me. He always had a smile and would ask me how I was doing. My prayers are with his family at this. He would say see you later and take care.

“ Met Bob after I joined 5th Street Yacht Club in 1988. I remember once when I forgot his name and he was quick to respond with another name for me - just whatever he had on his mind at the time. Frank seemed to be his best. After that it became a standing salutation that we would greet each other with a different name. Became a standing joke for over 30 years. Great guy with great humor.
