

Frank Harry Adamski

August 12, 1950 - December 15, 2023

KENOSHA - Frank Harry Adamski, 73, a remarkable soul known for his kind, protective nature, his love of classic cars, classic rock, and knack for mildly inappropriate jokes, passed away at Aurora Medical Center in Kenosha on December 12, 2023, surrounded by family.

Born in Milwaukee on August 12, 1950, to the late Frank and Delores (nee: Bauer) Adamski, his life was a journey of resilience, hard work, and deep love. Following his service in the United States Army, he wed his true love, Cheryl. Frank pursued his education at Concordia University and Milwaukee Area Technical College, and was a member of Our Father's Lutheran Church in Greenfield. His faith and unwavering dedication to his family truly defined him.

As a longtime crane operator at Maynard Steel, Frank was not just a man of steel and muscle cars; he was the heart of his family. When Cheryl fell ill, he transitioned into the role of caregiver, demonstrating a love that knew no bounds. He also shared a special bond with his grandson Josué. Their times together were often 'sweetened' by sneaking candy, and enjoying their favorite game shows. A hallmark of Frank's playful nature was his tradition of creating handmade 'El Cheapo' cards, which his daughter will remember fondly as tokens of his loving, silly spirit.

and uplifting words enriching the lives of those around him. He was often at the center of activity, whether channeling Johnny Cash during karaoke, engaging in games of cards or dominos, or showcasing his skills in Wii bowling. Known for his mischievous sense of humor, Frank had a unique way of brightening every room he entered.

Frank now dances to the Blues Brothers, in a place free of pain. His legacy of laughter and strength lives on through his daughter Jennifer (Addam Weirich) Adamski and his grandson Josué Torres. Frank also leaves behind his siblings Bonnie (Mark) Lesperance, Tony Adamski, Vicky (Brian) Rupnick, and John (Ann) Adamski. Sister-in-law Darleen (Edward) Gocha and mother-in-law Joan Szyba, foster grandson John Bates, numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives also survive him. He was preceded in death by his wife, Cheryl, and sister, Avis Macias.

A heartfelt thank you goes to the special caregivers and staff at Kenosha Place Senior Living for becoming an extension of the family, and to the ICU team at Aurora Medical Center Kenosha for their compassionate care.

Frank, along with his beloved wife Cheryl, will be laid to rest at Southern Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery on Tuesday, December 26 at 10 am. Their urns will be interred together, symbolizing their reunion in eternal rest. Join us as we celebrate a life well-lived, a man well-loved, and stories well-told.

“ My little cousin Cherie and her husband, Frank, were wonderful people. I have missed them greatly, as I have not seen them or been in touch for years. However, I, like them, have the blessed hope and assurance of happy reunions in heaven because of what Christ did for all of us on the cross!.

“ Frank never went a single day without lighting up talking about Jen and Josué. There was an indescribable change in his face and tone while speaking about his family. Even when recounting the mundane, you still felt his adoration for them as if it was a tangible presence in the room.

That type of encompassing love isn't common in this world and I will forever remain inspired from witnessing it.
