“ Gary and I met when we were both stationed at NSA Det Binh Thuy, Vietnam.

We both worked in the communication center for CTF116, staff command for the PBR River boats. He was a RM2, I was a CYN3. After returning home in 1969, we stayed in contact over the years. We visited on occasion with our families. He had told me about a year ago on my Birthday that we were indeed brothers. We had not seen each other for a few years, but tried to talk on the phone, or via email and Facebook.

It is with great sadness to find out of about his passing. Thoughts and prayers to his family. May he Rest In Peace, Fair Seas and Calm winds.
