“ Gordie was a very friendly neighbor. As those close to him know, he loved dogs. Whenever my wife or I walked our dog, Lambeau, past Gordie's house, he would say hello to all of us. Rest in peace, Gordie. And thank you for your service to our country.

“ My deepest sympathies to Gordy's family, I was so sadden to hear the news of his passing. I only have good memories of Gordy, especially when I was a young girl on our school bus ride to Drummond, WI from Grand View, he would always tease me and for a young girl to have an older boy tease you was a delight!! At the time I didn't realize he was actually a relative, we just chatted about that on August 3rd at the Grand View Picnic, I am so glad that I had gotten acquainted with him again after so many years. Just know that Gordy's upbeat spirit will always give you comfort and precious memories.
