“ The Charles Hanson family shares with you missing a loved friend, father and husband. Our Lord has called him home only after accomplishing His purposes for the kingdom. I cherish the friendship our families have shared on camping trips, the joy shared with grandsons Peter & Tyler meeting at Ravencrest. During the years after college I worked at Western Harold invited me to lunch, then asked if he could invite dad too. his heart was one of inclusiveness. Humor as he ran from school board and our family drove "the Hay mobile" covered on 4 sides with bumper stickers celebrating a man of faith and integrity. Most recently mom and I met Harold & Sally for dinner with other long time friends, he still had a sparkle in his eye and conversation remembering how the girls and I reconnected at Ravencrest with the boys; memories shared with my parents and a shared understanding with my mom of resting in the Lord as a caregiver. It has been a blessing to share our families and we celebrate our fathers are with the Lord and we will see them again when His purposes for as our accomplished. With Love and friendship Sylvia Hanson, Cheryl Novine, Cynthia Zeckmeister, & our families

“ To Sally and family,

We express our sincere sympathy on the loss of Harold.

Riding with Harold from home to home provided many interesting moments of conversation during the Real Estate days.

Again, our sympathy to you on your loss!

“ I had 20 wonderful years working with Harold. I was a field salesman and had to on many occasions call into Racine with a problem. Harold would always be available to solve the problem. In 1987 I left Western to go into full-time Christian Service with Child Evangelism Fellowship and again had occasion to run into Harold at Racine Bible Church when my wife and I would go back to Racine to visit. What a wonderful fellow servant in Christ, he will be missed but I look forward to seeing him again in heaven.

Your friend in Christ
