*Dear Mary, Bobby and Family,
My condolences on the passing of your dear mother. Although I did not know your mother well, I always remembered her from Epiphany as a kind, pleasant and warm person. I am sure you are comforted knowing she was a woman of faith.*

Thank you for posting the beautiful photo tribute. She was quite glamorous! I enjoyed all the fashions from days gone by.

Be comforted by the knowledge that she is in heaven with our Lord and Savior and with all her loved ones who proceeded her.

“ *Dear Mike and Family,
My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mom. I recall many times passing their home often seeing your mom and dad working fastidiously in their yard. It was easy to see their pride and their love of the outdoors. I know that you all miss her dearly and I pray that your memories of her will carry you through the most difficult times ahead. May God bless all of you and may she rest in peace.*

Your friend,

Tom Seitz
