“ I have very fond memories of Inga and John when they lived on Linderman and my girls and I went there for many delicious meals. She was a marvelous cook and made the best kringle that I ever had. She also was a primary staff member of the Visiting Nurses as she provided us with our pay checks. So efficient and caring for all who worked with her. Inga was a devoted mother, wife and grandmother and a friend to many. I am so fortunate to have had her friendship. My deepest sympathy and prayers to Lynn and Peter, and Clair and the grandchildren. Sorry that I am unable to attend the services but I will remember you in prayer.

“ Inga was a good friend of mine for over 40 years . She encouraged me to go back to school. We took many classes together. Stared an Investment Club, took a class at H&R for taxes and I started card group and we learned Shepshrad which is still going on. Went out to dinner as couples. I will miss you my friend God Bless Jean Dragan Krause

“ Inga was a jewel and a good friend to Mother Gudrun Andreassen. Inga had Gudrun and our family to Inga and Clair's home many times for a beautiful mid day meal. Inga and Clair attended our monthly family breakfast and were always concerned part of the family. Inga had a good heart and always a friendly to all the people she met. God bless her sole and will be missed dearly.
