Jacob "Jake" R. Canaday

Pleasant Prairie- Jacob R. Canaday, 25, passed away on Monday, December 12, 2022, at Froedtert Pleasant Prairie Hospital.

He was born on November 1, 1997, to Sandra Jarstad-Canaday in Shawano, WI.

Jake attended Bain Elementary, Bose Elementary, Washington Middle School and was a 2016 graduate of Indian Trails High School and Academy. He was employed as an actor at the Dungeon of Doom Haunted House in Zion Illinois, which he greatly enjoyed.

Jake was a "knowledgeable old soul." He loved gaming and was well known as Ash. He also enjoyed reading, poetry, and jazz music. He was an ordained minister through Universal Life Ministries, performing VR weddings and in person weddings.

Jake will be dearly missed by his parents, Sandy (Allen Nelson) Canaday; brothers, Robert Jarstad, Joseph (Erica) Jensen; sister, Jennifer (Chris) Ottaway; grandparents, Robert and Barbara Jarstad, Julie Mueller; special nephews, Aiden and Dylan Techert; honorary grandma, Judy Herbst. He is further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives, his local friends and all his online gaming friends.

Preceded in death by great grandmother, Opal Jane Butterfield and his nephew, Jacob Jensen.

Keeping with Jake's wishes, a private service will be held.

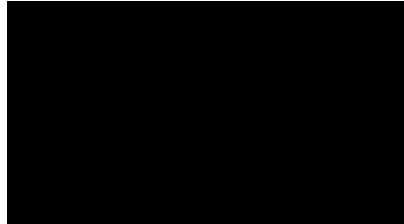

Memorials to the family would be greatly appreciated.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Dr. Douglas Milosavljevic, Nurse Practitioner, Pat and the entire staff at the Pain Management Office, Dr. David Knight, and the 2nd floor staff at Froedtert Pleasant Prairie Hospital and the Staff at Sturino Funeral Home.

“ I remember working at the haunt with Jake. Always had a smile and always lit up a room. Loved what he did and really excelled at it. He wasn't just a co worker for me. He was a friend. He was one of my favorite people to act with and to be around at the haunt. I will miss you.
