June 28, 1938 - August 4, 2016

James M. Webb

RACINE - James M. Webb, 78, passed away on August 4, 2016 at Lakeshore Manor.

He was born in Kenosha on June 28, 1938 to the late Harrison E. and Florence (nee: Jensen) Webb. He graduated from Washington Park High School, where he was president, and valedictorian of his class. This earned him a scholarship from Inland Steele to attend Northwestern University, where part of the program was work experience opportunities. In 1960, Jim interned for Johnson Wax, was hired permanently, and worked for 40 years, retiring in 2000. He spent his entire career in Information Services. On two separate occasions, Johnson Wax sent Jim, along with his family, to live and work in England; 1966 through 1968, and 1976 through 1978. After retiring, Jim and Joy spent their winters enjoying the sunshine, and watching the Cubs' spring training ball games in Arizona.

Jim is survived by his wife of 57 years, Joy (nee: Genunzio), his children; Jonathan Webb of Milwaukee, Christopher (Brenda) Webb of Racine, and Jennafer (Jack) Kaiser of San Francisco.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Allison Webb Wilson in 2008.

A memorial service for Jim will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Tuesday, August 9, 2016, at 11 a.m., with Rev. Dr. Warren Williams officiating. A visitation will be held at the funeral home from 10 a.m. until the time of service.

Memorials to Hospice Alliance, The Nature Conservancy, or Living Faith Lutheran Church (Prayer Shawl Ministry) have been suggested by the family. A special thank you to Lakeshore Manor and Hospice Alliance for the wonderful care they provided for Jim.
