

Jeanette Marie Moebius

September 10, 1926 - July 3, 2017

Jeanette M. Moebius

RACINE - Jeanette Marie (nee: Lamberton) Moebius, 90, passed away peacefully at her residence on Monday July 3, 2017. She was born in Racine on September 10, 1926, the daughter of the late Lee and Anna Lamberton. As a child, Jeanette could always be found with a brush or pencil in her hand. Before marrying, she worked as a graphic artist in the Racine and Milwaukee area.

Jeanette was united in marriage to William "Bill" Moebius on July 17, 1948. At the time of Bill's passing on November 20, 2014 they celebrated 65 years of marriage. She was a member of Holy Nativity Lutheran Church in Kenosha and was then a longtime member of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Racine, where she participated in Mary Circle bible study group.

Jeanette was an avid bird watcher, she also enjoyed gardening, cooking, animals and gambling. Painting and sketching were passions her whole life long. She worked in all mediums but watercolors were her favorite.

Surviving are her children, Scott (Julia) Moebius of Janesville and Janet (Tom) Hynes of Racine; grandchildren, Jessica Moebius (Jesse Orth) of Waterloo, IA, and Jennifer Moebius of St. Paul, MN; great grandchildren, Owen and Austin Orth and sister, Pat Schroeder, one niece and nephews.

Funeral service will be held at Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 2417 Drexel Ave. on Tuesday July 11, 2017 at 10 am with Rev. Dr. Harvard Stephens officiating. Jeanette will be laid to rest with her husband at Southern Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery. Visitation will be held at church from 9 am until service time at 10 am.

Memorials to Lutheran Church of the Redeemer would be appreciated.

“ We always appreciated our Aunt Jeanette. She and Uncle Bill were always so accommodating to our Moebius family. I personally was always awed by Aunt Jeanette's paintings. She would even discuss them with me as a young boy. It was nice to have an adult explain her work. I went on to take all art courses and graphics courses I was able to take in school and college. My career as a Cartographer was certainly influenced by her artistry. Love and condolences to the family, Bruce & Dottie Moebius

“ Janet, I am sorry to connect with you at this time with the loss of your mom. Some of us from Reliance have tried to contact you and often someone will ask about your well being. This should be comforting to know that you are often in our thoughts. Now tho you and your family have my thoughts and prayers.
