“ What a beautiful picture of Jan. I was in aquasize class with her for many years. Enjoyed her singing many times. One of my last memories was giving her a ride home because she couldn't find her keys (this was when her memory was starting to fade.) She was such a nice lady. She always had a twinkle in her pretty blue eyes.

“ Christmas memories revolve around the gatherings of the Bertram Families on Christmas Day. Listening as the uncles played music and the ladies talking in the kitchen after the great meals. Aunt Jeanette was always so joyful to watch as she and Uncle Dan did their square dancing. My prayers and sympathy to my cousins Trudy and Donna and their families. Cousin Bonnie and Brian

“ May you rest in peace, my memories go back 73 years when I was a wee one of 3 years old You and Uncle Dan had a special place in my hart. I always enjoyed visiting your house for dinner. You introduced me to the simple pear salad, made of lettuce, half a pear and a dolop of mayonaise. It remained one of my favorites.
Your Loving Nephew Allan.
