

Jennifer Sprague

July 7, 1957 - April 27, 2026

Jennifer Sprague, born on July 7th 1957 passed away in her home in Racine on April 27th 2026 at the age of 68. She will be missed by her three children; Marie, John, and David and two grandchildren Edwin and Evan.

Her interests included gardening, crafts, reading, and traveling, having driven across America many times. She loved visiting national parks, some of her favorites were Yellowstone, Gooseberry Falls, The Black Hills, and the Grand Canyon which she traveled to with her family over the years.

She was also talented at many crafts and gardening which she used to make her house more personal. Tulips decorated the front of the house and furniture she painted herself, along with crochet and glass mosaics filled the inside her home where she could often be found reading by the window.

She will be missed but never forgotten.
