Jenny Lynn Thom

BURLINGTON – Jenny Lynn (Campton-Sanders) Thom, 39, received her wings on August 14, 2017. She is now free to soar in the clouds with her daughter, Alexis Rayne.

Jenny was born in Racine on May 6, 1978, daughter of Sheryl (Campton) Hedding and Ricky Sanders. On October 22, 2010, she was united in marriage to Shane Thom in Burlington.

Jenny had many hobbies that included shopping, crafts/scrapbooking, home decorating, volleyball and fashion design. She was warm hearted, free spirited, and energetic. Her passion was being a mother; she loved her children more than anything. Jenny was extremely proud of her Native American Heritage and was well known for being outspoken.

Surviving are her mother and father, Sheryl and Ricky, her son, Kyelar J., her husband Shane, her sisters Shannon and Kristin, her brother Michael, nieces Brianah and Anastasia, her nephews Devin and Marco Jr, her best friend, Autohoffo, and her side kick, Lilly Lou.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Alexis Rayne.

Private services have already taken place, at the family's request.

*Not a day goes by that your not missed Jen Jen. I hope you knew that you were loved dearly by your family and friends. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you in the end. I wish I could trade all of my tomorrow's for one single yesterday. You will forever be in my heart.
Love your baby brother,
Mikey xoxo*

“ My sister was always singing and dancing; music kept her smiling. I remember her driving me to the hospital when I was going into labor with my oldest daughter; she was flying through traffic, honking her horn all while jamming out to Missy Elliott's "Super Fly". She will forever hold a major part of my heart. <3
