“ My condolences to friends and family of Jerome Vine. He was always trying to make me laugh. I met him through Linda Ward years ago. He loved cars, telling jokes, talking to anyone he could find...and there was a good chance he would know this random stranger he was talking to. He had a memory sharp as a witt. Linda, Jerry and I would go out to eat most weekends at various locations, but he loved Derango's! I'm going to miss him so much. I love his family. They are all nice people. I love and appreciate the time I got to share with Jerry and his family. He is definitely loved by many and will be missed deeply. I already miss calling him. Love and peace be with everyone on their journey to healing. ❤️
