“ My sympathy to friends and family. Haven't seen you in a long, long time but remember meeting you for the first time on my first day of kindergarten at Trautwein School and enjoyed a childhood friendship.

“ *To my best friend:
It's been 56 years since our friendship began. We were a mere 12 years old for a while then I turned thirteen and became older that you again. Which always made you happy. All the wisdom and knowledge you shared with me has not been in vain. I loved when you read me your poetry, corrected me when I was wrong, shared laughter and tears. Many years of fun and adventure was to follow. The growing old with you will never be met by any other. When we both meet with the spirit in the sky, we will take up where we left off. Bye my best friend.*

“Joan and I decided to go out on the town. We bought matching PAPER dresses. Looking good we went to Shakey's in Kenosha. Got our beers and went to sit in a booth. Un fortunately Joan sat in someone's spilled beer. Her dress was disenergrating . I walked close behind her as we left. We went home, changed and continued our night out.
