“ John was my brother-in-law & I miss him dearly, but God called him home because his room was ready & he knew John didn't have the strength anymore to keep going with his health issues. I remember him carrying me on his shoulders as a child as we went through a haunted house because something or someone touched my leg. My dad made me stilts for Christmas one year & John helped me learn how to use them. I have a lot more good memories of him & my sister as I used to go down to spend a night or 2 quite often, we always stayed up to watch The Honeymooners. John was a good man, hard working to always provide for my Sister & niece. I'm so thankful I got to come down for Easter to visit with him. Thanks for all the good times, laughs & help with things when I needed it. Now I hope you said hi to mom & dad for me like I asked you to & you rest in heaven until we meet again. Love You, your sister-in-law
