

Jonathan Harrison Webb

March 12, 1962 - February 23, 2017

Jonathan Harrison Webb

RACINE - Jonathan Harrison Webb, 54, passed away on Thursday, February 23, 2017 at Hospice House in Pleasant Prairie.

He was born on March 12, 1962 to Jim and Joy (nee: Genunzio) Webb.

Jonathan twice attended school in England when his family lived there due to his father's work. He graduated from Wm. Horlick High School in 1979.

Jonathan won a four year scholarship to Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, from which he graduated with a major in French in 1983.

He was employed for thirty years in the Registrar's Office at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, last working on December 28, 2016. Jonathan was a voracious reader, and loved music of all genres.

He is survived by his mother, Joy of Racine, brother, Christopher (Brenda) Webb of Racine, and sister, Jennafer (Jack) Kaiser of San Francisco.

Jonathan was preceded in death by his father, Jim on August 4, 2016, and sister, Allison on March 26, 2008.

A memorial service in Jonathan's honor will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Thursday, March 2, 2017 at 12 noon, with Rev Denise M.H. Mbise officiating. Friends may call from 11 a.m. until the time of service.

Memorials in Jonathan's name may be directed to Hospice Alliance or the American Cancer Society.

The family wishes to thank the caregivers of Hospice Alliance and Hospice House for the loving and compassionate care and attention given to Jonathan and his family.

“ Jonathan was an important influence in my life. He was kind and extremely thoughtful. He had an incisive intellect and a quick wit, and motivated me and others to excel in the same way. He had a terrific sense of humor, and was full of energy and awareness. Inspired by music, philosophy, abstract concepts, and art, he saw connections between them that others missed.

I loved him dearly and will always be grateful to have known him.

I will never forget him.

Peace to his family and friends.
