Auntie Joyce was a one of kind. One of my earliest memories was "Your haircuts are free as long as you don't buy 🚬 cigarettes or lipstick 🕯️! She had more energy than a ball of fire shooting across the sky! No one could volunteer, give of their time and not have an impact on her family and others. We will never know how many lives she has touched. From running her hair business, selling toys, to carmel apples to doing hair for the elderly in homes. When asked how she was doing her response was I don't know if I am afoot or on horseback! You have wings now get busy you have work to do! Love, Esterlyn

“ In 1979 Dave and I eloped to TX to get married and returned home for my sisters wedding a few months later. Since I had no wedding or shower I had very little in the way of kitchen and household items. Before we returned to TX auntie Joyce filled our car to the ceiling with so many things I felt I had a wedding. I used the cook book until the pages fell out and thought of her every time I learned a new recipe. I still remember the lemon meringue pie. So yummy! She was such thoughtful auntie!
