“ My condolences go out to the Miller family. Justin was a good friend. I knew him throughout the years running out at UW Parkside and all of the local races. He always inspired me to try to be better. He was one of the people I always looked forward to seeing and spend time talking to at the runs. He will always be remembered and will be missed.

I'm running my first marathon on November 1st in Indianapolis, and I'm running this one for you Justin. You will truly be missed and remembered.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I only knew Justin a few years, but he was respected in the running community as a great runner. My very first run with the Racine Area Running Club was with him only, and he was kind enough to slow down a lot and let me set the pace! He will be missed. Jessica Lehmann
